

Audriana Osborne, Policy Analyst

Audriana R. Osborne is a Policy Analyst with theGROUP. In this role, Audriana researches, tracks, and analyzes legislation essential to both the clients' and the firm's success. She also advances the execution of special projects at the firm.

Prior to becoming a Policy Analyst, Audriana worked with theGROUP as a Policy Intern. As an intern, she gained experience tracking legislation, drafting memoranda, and learning about FARA and other legal compliance requirements. She also contributed to several on-going projects at theGROUP, including the relaunching of the company's website.

Audriana's research experience has both breadth and diversity. Before joining theGROUP, she served as a research intern at the San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park where she assisted museum curation planning and led a museum research project that uncovered materials on the contributions of African Americans in Pacific Maritime history. A scholar of literature and music, Audriana produced award-winning research in several research symposiums. She also served as an Executive Assistant at the Administrative Office of Courts in Montgomery, Alabama, where she began cultivating her policy research skills.

She received a B.A. degree in English with a minor in music industry from Florida A & M University (FAMU), where she graduated summa cum laude. During her time at FAMU, Audriana served in the Student Government Association, worked as a university recruiter and writing tutor, was a member of University Honors College, and led a campaign on increasing financial literacy amongst college students. She also served as the featured speaker for several university events.

Audriana is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity, Incorporated.

Currently a second-year student at the Howard University School of Law, Audriana is on the executive board of Fashion Law Society and a youth mentor. Born and reared in Montgomery, Alabama, Audriana now resides in the District of Columbia.
